

Course Overview

Develop the skills for a rewarding career to make a real difference in the lives of others. If you enjoy working with people and are passionate about health and wellbeing, the CHC43415 Certificate IV in Leisure and Health may be for you. It will qualify you to design and deliver health and leisure programs for individuals and groups. This course, created in consultation with the industry and is ideal if you want to launch your career in leisure and health. Work in disability, aged care or community settings.

It is also perfect for those currently working in aged care, looking to upskill and build. You will learn more about positive ageing and new ways to enhance the emotional and mental wellbeing of your clients. This is also a wonderful opportunity for existing carers to add more variety into their career. You will have the option to continue working as a carer and working in leisure and health roles or pursuing a new career in leisure and health. The focus is shifting towards 'client choice' care, positive ageing and a desire to further enhance the mental and emotional wellbeing of our ageing population. The positive impact of individual choice and well-designed leisure and lifestyle programs is increasingly regarded as crucial to lifting the standard of aged care and increasing quality of life.
